

Southern Belles & Whistles Itinerary

DAY 1, Sunday, October 20, 2019

You will be met at the Charlotte Douglas International Airport, then proceed immediately to Asheville, NC. Marvel at the stunning fall colors of the Blue Ridge Mountains along the way. Upon arrival, have lunch on your own at one of the many eateries at the estate. Then embark on an awe-inspiring tour of the Biltmore Mansion, America's largest privately-owned home at 178,926 square feet. Built for George Vanderbilt in 1895, and still owned by his descendants, it remains one of the most prominent examples of Gilded Age Mansions. The Estate Tour ends with a complimentary tasting of some of Biltmore's most celebrated wines. Depart Asheville for Greenville. Enjoy a welcome dinner at one of Greenville's favorite local restaurants. Overnight stay in Greenville, SC.

DAY 2, Monday, October 21, 2019

After a good night's rest and breakfast at the hotel, depart for Charleston, SC, one of the most beautiful and historic cities in the South. It features stately homes and lovely gardens, magnificent buildings, and majestic churches. Upon arrival, we stop at the Charleston City Market where you'll have some time for shopping and lunch on your own. Then meet your local guide for an informative city tour. Discover the history behind some of Charleston's most elegant antebellum homes. Learn about the sacrifice and tragedy endured by the North and South. You'll be immersed in the conflict that defined our nation. Remainder of the day is at leisure to explore the wonderful sights of this historic port city.

DAY 3, Tuesday, October 22, 2019

After breakfast, join the optional tour to the Boone Hall Plantation & Gardens, Charleston's most visited plantation. After lunch on your own, we visit some of the most notorious locations where The Notebook movie was filmed. Then embark on a scenic Charleston harbor cruise and visit to Fort Sumter, also known as The Battery, the site upon which the shots that started the American Civil War were fired on April 12, 1861. In the evening, consider an optional carriage ride, colonial style through Charleston's quaint historic district where you'll learn more about Charleston's rich history against the sounds of hoofbeats.

DAY 4, Wednesday, October 23, 2019

After breakfast, we depart for another gorgeous and historic city in the Deep South, Savannah. Upon arrival, we'll take a stroll through Forsyth Park. Dating back to the 1840s, this park occupies 30 acres and features the iconic fountain and wonderful walking trails. Then enjoy an included lunch at the Pirate House Restaurant, one of Savannah's most haunted restaurants. Evening is at leisure or dare to join other brave soles to experience the darker side of America's most haunted city on the optional Ghost Tour.

DAY 5, Thursday, October 24, 2019

After breakfast you will meet your local guide for a tour of the city with one of the largest restored National Historic Landmark Districts in the nation. The Historic District has over 270 years of rich history with its restored 18th and 19th century buildings, and the waterfront's former cotton warehouses are now restaurants, hotels and shops. This beautiful city eloquently displays exquisite ironwork, ancient cobblestones, splendid mansions and picturesque cottages. Evening is at leisure or join the eco-friendly Slow Ride Pub Crawl, a 2-hour adventure where you'll check out Savannah's most classic watering holes. Bring your to-go cup back to the bike and enjoy your adult beverage as you pedal to the next destination. A trained, licensed driver will assure you safe travels! (Vehicle limited to 15 passengers – sign up taken on first come, first served basis).

DAY 6, Friday, October 25, 2019

DAY 4 - Following breakfast, check out of our hotel. Spend the morning further exploring Savannah's Historic District or pick up some souvenirs in Savannah's River Street District. Conclude your Southern Belles & Whistles tour with an authentic down-home Southern Feast at celebrity chef Paula Deen's famed restaurant, The Lady & Sons. Our motor coach will then transport us back to the Charlotte for our return flight home.
